

Today's Scripture Readings

Revelation 21¹⁻⁸ (NKJV)

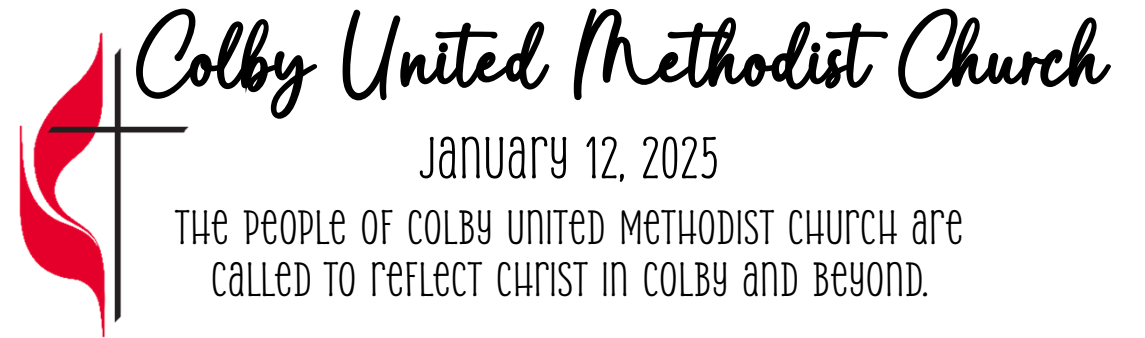

Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea. Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

Then He who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And He said to me, "Write, for these words are true and faithful."

And He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts. He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son. But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

Romans 8³⁷ (NKJV)

Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.

Call to Worship

Church, we enter the new year as we ended the last: gathered together for worship!

We gather to seek, find, and follow the Light!

The Prophet Isaiah calls to us from deep in the past: “Arise, shine: for your light has come.”

We gather to seek, find, and follow the Light!

The magi followed a star to find a small child who is the Light of the world.

We gather to seek, find, and follow the Light!

So, let us receive the call of Isaiah. And follow the example of the magi as we begin this new year turning our faces to God whose glory shows up among us as a vulnerable child, a poor carpenter and a foot-washing servant who is the salvation of the world.

We gather to seek, find, and follow the Light today and every day.

Amen!
